AI Overview

Titan Armenia, Luxel, and AREG are leading manufacturers and suppliers of electrical distribution boxes and related equipment in Armenia. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers Titan Armenia Founded in 1988, Titan Armenia is a prominent electrical equipment manufacturer offering a wide range of products, including electrical distribution boxes, switches, and modular installation systems. Their K-800 series specifically provides high-quality electrical distribution and installation solutions for concealed wiring, with a variety of boxes made from durable materials. Titan emphasizes European standards, innovative design, and compatibility across product lines, making it suitable for residential, office, and industrial applications. Luxel (J.N.-J.S. CJSC) Established in 2007 in Yerevan, Luxel supplies specialized electrical mounting equipment and materials, including metal boxes, electrical enclosures, and cable management systems. They represent international brands such as INTERPLAST, KIRAC METAL, and RUSSKIY SVET, providing certified products for large construction projects and industrial installations. Luxel also offers automatic equipment like circuit breakers, relays, and starters, making them a comprehensive supplier for electrical distribution needs. AREG AREG focuses on the production of electric equipment, including metal cabinets, racks, and electrical enclosures. Their product range covers electrical distribution systems, transformers, wiring accessories, and protection devices. AREG's capabilities include both manufacturing and assembly of industrial electrical equipment, suitable for commercial and industrial applications. Additional Resources For broader B2B sourcing, Europages lists multiple Armenian and regional suppliers of power distribution boxes, including companies that specialize in switchgear, low-voltage distribution, and automation s...
