

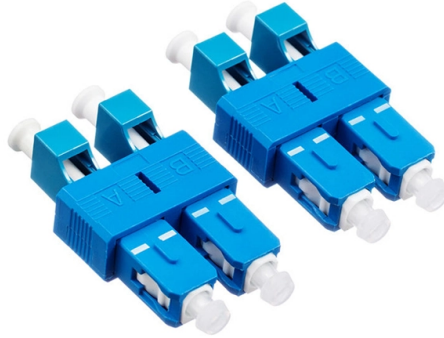

Exhibition Hall

AI Overview

An exhibition hall is a large indoor venue designed to host trade shows, conventions, cultural events, and other large gatherings. Overview Exhibition halls are versatile spaces used for trade shows, consumer expos, corporate events, banquets, and public exhibitions. They are typically designed with open floor plans, high ceilings, and flexible layouts to accommodate booths, stages, and large audiences. Many halls include amenities such as built-in sound systems, loading docks, parking facilities, and accessibility features to support a wide range of events. Examples of Exhibition Halls

Seattle Center Exhibition Hall, Seattle, WA: This 34,000 square foot venue is Seattle Center's largest flat-floor space, hosting trade shows, benefit auctions, corporate holiday parties, and large receptions. It features a private lobby, box office, coatroom, and a 1,200-car covered parking garage. Maximum capacities include 2,500 for receptions, 1,000 for banquets, and 1,840 for theater-style seating.

Neal S. Blaisdell Exhibition Hall, Honolulu, HI: A 65,000 square foot air-conditioned space, expandable to 85,000 square feet with adjoining areas. It hosts community events, trade shows, and large public festivals, with multiple entrances, exhibitor access, and technical support for electrical and water needs.

McCormick Place, Chicago, IL: North America's largest convention center with over 2.6 million square feet of exhibit space, ideal for conferences, trade shows, and corporate events of any size.

Student and Campus Exhibition Halls: For example, Georgia Tech's Exhibition Hall offers 12,000 square feet of divisible ballroom space, 11 meeting rooms, and full A/V capabilities for campus events.

Local Options Near Moses Lake, WA While Moses Lake itself has smaller meeting facilities, several hotels provide conference and event spaces suitable for exhibitions:

Best Western Plus Lake Front Hotel: Largest meeting room 4,583 sq. ft., total event space 3,600 sq. ft.

Comfort Suites: Largest conference room 396 sq. ft., total event space 396 sq. ft.
