

Namibian Access Switch Manufacturer

AI Overview

Namibia has a mix of local and international access switch suppliers, including distributors for Cisco, Ubiquiti, MikroTik, and other networking brands. Local and Regional Suppliers

1. DIKA Networking DIKA provides access control systems and networking solutions in Namibia, offering turnkey configurations tailored to customer requirements. While primarily focused on electronic security, their solutions include networked access systems that integrate with switches and IT infrastructure.
2. Trademo Namibia Trademo lists multiple switch manufacturers and suppliers operating in Namibia, providing shipment data, trade volumes, and contact information. This platform is useful for identifying local manufacturers and distributors of networking switches across Windhoek and other regions.
3. Cisco Distributors in Namibia Cisco-certified distributors supply enterprise-grade switches, routers, firewalls, and wireless access points. Key clients include mining companies like Namdeb and Husab uranium mine, as well as government and banking sectors. These distributors ensure genuine hardware, full warranty, and end-to-end delivery across Namibia.
4. MiRO Southern Africa MiRO is a major regional distributor serving Namibia, offering products from Ubiquiti, Cambium, Mimosa, MikroTik, and Tenda. They provide both wired and wireless networking solutions, VoIP, and IP video technology, along with pre- and post-sales support. MiRO can handle national network upgrades and large-scale projects, delivering stock within 48 hours of payment.
5. Syntex Technologies Syntex Technologies supplies various IT hardware, including networking equipment, and delivers directly to Namibian clients. They also provide integrated systems for business operations, border control, and utility management, which often require robust network switch infrastructure.

.Summary Namibia does not have a large number of purely local switch manufacturers; instead, the market is served by regional distributors and local resel...
