

Tanzanian electrical distribution box manufacturer price inquiry

AI Overview

Electrical distribution boxes in Tanzania are available from local suppliers like Jiji.co.tz and TRONIC, with prices starting from around TSh 10,000 for basic models, while industrial-grade boxes can cost significantly more depending on size and specifications.

Local Suppliers and Price RangesJiji.co.tz lists multiple electrical boxes and panels for sale in Tanzania, with prices starting from TSh 10,000 for basic residential boxes. These include both residential and industrial options, and verified sellers offer a range of sizes and materials.

TRONIC (Cash Sale Stores Limited) supplies metallic enclosures and distribution boards suitable for commercial and industrial applications. Enclosures range in size, such as 1800x1000x600mm and 1600x800x600mm, designed for durability, impact resistance, and electrical insulation. Prices vary depending on size, material, and included components.

Imported and Bulk OptionsTradeKey lists bulk distribution boxes imported from China, including metal and plastic boxes, fiber optical distribution boxes, and industrial CEE boxes. Features include 1.2–1.5mm sheet steel bodies, epoxy polyester powder coating, and various mounting options. These boxes are suitable for low-voltage power distribution, cable management, and industrial installations. Pricing is typically negotiable based on quantity and specifications, and suppliers offer OEM and ODM services.

Local Manufacturers and SuppliersVolex Electrical Engineering Limited provides a range of electrical power products, including low-voltage materials and distribution solutions. They cater to both residential and industrial clients, and pricing can be obtained by contacting them directly for quotes.

TRONIC also offers distribution boards, MCCBs, MCBs, isolators, and control gear, making them a one-stop supplier for electrical distribution needs in Tanzania.
